Storytelling with Data

Your Name:

Title of the Story;

What aspects of the story do you notice from a data visualization point of view?

What aspects do you think were challenging to implement?

What are you curious about (from a data visualization point of view) after interacting with the story?